INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
GOODProjects
Washington, DC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of GOODProjects (a nonprofit organization), which are comprised of the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024; the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended; and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the GOODProjects as of December 31, 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of GOODProjects, and to meet our ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the organization's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

GOODProjects

Auditor's Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

GOODProjects
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2024

Note 1. - General information and summary of significant accounting policies

General information

GOODProjects (the Organization) is a not-for-profit organization organized in the District of Columbia. The Organization is a community-based organization, which prides itself in its history of experience growing up in the community. The Organization is committed to providing opportunities daily for at-risk youth and their families to live fulfilling lives, free from poverty, violence and disease. The Organization provides workforce development training, mentorship, tutoring, social entrepreneurship training, athletic development, social-emotional development, alternative environment exposure, college readiness as well as basic needs for families including food and access to government service providers. The Organization funds its programs and supporting services primarily through grants and contributions from local governments, foundations and corporations.

Note 2. - Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting

GOODProjects's financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash on hand, deposits in banks, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less are considered cash and cash equivalents for purposes of these financial statements.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is recognized over the related assets' estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. Repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred.

Net assets

For financial statement purposes, net assets are classified as follows:

Without donor restrictions

Represents the portion of net assets whose use is not restricted by donors, even though their use may be limited in other respects, such as by board designation.

With donor restrictions

Represents the portion of net assets whose use by GOODProjects has been restricted by donors with specified time or purpose limitations. Donor restrictions as of December 31, 2024 totaled $446,000.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2024

Liquidity

Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year $ 700,832.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized during the period in which it is earned. Contributions are recognized in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 116.

Expenses

Expenses are recognized by GOODProjects during the period in which they are incurred. Expenses paid in advance and not yet incurred are deferred to the applicable period.

Functional allocation of expenses

The costs of GOODProjects's various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, supporting general and administrative costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefitted.

Subsequent events

Subsequent events have been considered through September 7th, 2025.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments which potentially subject GOODProjects to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash deposits maintained at credit worthy financial institutions.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from estimates.

Income tax status

GOODProjects is exempt from federal income taxes on income other than unrelated business income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the applicable income tax regulations of the District of Columbia. GOODProjects had no unrelated business income during the year ended December 31, 2024.
